

Recommended Reading List Pre-K entering Kindergarten

The most important thing about learning to read is loving to read. You can foster your child's love of reading by reading with them throughout your day. Driving? Read store and street signs. Grabbing a bite? Read the menu together. Did the mail come? Give children a catalog to thumb through. Of course, spending quality time with your child and a book is always a great idea, too! Here are a few book recommendations from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for children entering kindergarten.

Everywhere Wonder* by Matthew Swanson The imagination of a young boy—who explores everything from the pyramids of Egypt to a dusty footprint on the moon—and then back out again to the wonderful world right in front of him. ©2017 Grade Level K-1

If You Ever Want to Bring a Circus to the Library, Don't* by Elise Parsley If you see a poster that says "You Can Do Anything at the Library!", it is NOT giving you permission to put on a circus! But Magnolia doesn't see any problem with setting up her own big top. She's got a lot of gusto and one mean human cannonball routine. ©2017 Grade Level K-1

Good Day, Good Night* by Margaret Wise Brown Reminiscent of the author's beloved Goodnight Moon, this shares a day—and night—in the life of a busy little bunny. ©2017 Grade Level K-1

Green* by Laura Vaccaro Seeger How many kinds of green are there? There's the lush green of a forest on a late spring day, the fresh, juicy green of a just-cut lime, the incandescent green of a firefly, and the vivid aquamarine of a tropical sea. 2013 Caldecott Honor Book, Geisel Honor Book, Kirkus Reviews Best Children's Book of ©2012 Grade Level Preschool-1
